Mr. President, I have a Reference Report referring Legislative Bills 835 through 860. That is signed by Senator Marvel, Chairman. Mr. President, I have LR 158. Read title. Mr. President, that should properly be laid over until tomorrow. Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's opinion, 169 and 170. Number 169 is referred to Senator Barnett, 170 to Senator Chambers. Those will be inserted in the Legislative Journal in full. Mr. President, I have nothing further.

SENATOR DWORAK: Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Mr. President, I just have one more announcement. I want to repeat the announcement I had made before the noon recess, that is that all committee chairmen who want to set hearings please set them by noon tomorrow if you can. After that we're not going to be able to refer these bills for hearing during the two week hearing schedule. Get them in by noon so that we can refer them and get the reference read into the record before adjourn tomorrow evening. All committee chairmen do that. Tomorrow is the last day for introduction of bills. Just to clarify that, everybody is to have their bills in by tomorrow. So the committee chairmen have to have those hearings set by tomorrow afternoon, no later than tomorrow afternoon, for the next two weeks. Committee chairmen, that is for their attention. Any questions? If not, then Mr. President, I move that we adjourn until 9 a.m. tomorrow morning.

SENATOR DWORAK: It is so ordered. So ordered.
